
Dr. Tina Okonkwo

Dr. Tina is a dual board-certified Nurse Practitioner in Family medicine and Psychiatric/Behavioral medicine. She is the President of Rising Hope Healing, and Helping Hands in High Point, NC, where she volunteers weekly hours in the care of people with diverse mental health struggles.

Her educational background and cultural proficiency make it easy for her to understand and work with a diversity of people. Dr. Tina is an amazing individual with a genuine desire and passion for helping everyone.